International Studies in the Philippines

Mapping New Frontiers in Theory and Practice

Edited by Frances Antoinette Cruz, University of the Philippines-Diliman, Philippines and Nassef Manabilang Adiong, University of the Philippines-Diliman, Philippines

Series: International Relations in Southeast Asia

The Philippines makes a fascinating case study of a medium-sized, developing, post-colonial, multi-ethnic and multi-cultural state in Southeast Asia. Cruz, Adiong and their contributors map horizons of non-Western approaches in Philippine experiences of IR, rooted in the Global South, and in local customs and practice. Examining both theory and praxis, they explore issues as diverse as pre-colonial history, diplomacy, religion, agrarian reform and the Philippines' relationship with key regions in the Global South.
